Changes to Survey & Travelling Time Fees

As a result of feedback from Gibraltar registered ship owners and operators the Gibraltar Maritime Administration will implement changes to survey fees, and associated travelling time to attend surveys.

These changes enable the Gibraltar Maritime Administration to be more competitive in relation to the cost of surveys.

Currently the hourly fee to conduct a survey and associated travelling time to attend a survey is £75.00 per hour.

As from the 20 May 2006 the hourly fee to conduct a survey will increase from £75.00 per hour to £90.00 per hour.

Conversely, as from the 20 May 2006 the hourly fee for travelling time will decrease from £75.00 per hour to £45.00 per hour.

Travelling time to destinations in Europe will be capped at 8 hours per day and travelling time to destinations outside Europe will be capped at 10 hours per day.

The result of these changes, based on the attendance and conduct of an average survey, will be a decrease in the overall charge of survey by 20-30%.
