Reporting Port State Control (PSC) Detentions

This Shipping Information Notice serves as a reminder to all owners and operators of Gibraltar registered ships, and classification societies acting on behalf of the Gibraltar Maritime Administration.

It is a requirement for all Port State Control (PSC) detentions to be reported to both this Administration and the appropriate classification society.

Whenever a Gibraltar registered ship has been detained under PSC a report of the detention must be submitted without delay.

In the first instance, owners and operators are required to inform this Administration and the appropriate classification society immediately by telephone / e-mail as to the nature, and port of detention, as well as requesting a classification society surveyor to attend the vessel.

Classification societies acting on behalf of the Gibraltar Maritime Administration are hereby authorised to act in this capacity.
